"The project was inspired of all the thoughts inside my mind that I think about from time to time. The concept was I'm going to display my thoughts from inside my mind give people something from deep involved the back of my mind. The message is it's ok to think theses things but be mature to handle your emotions as mature as possible!" Pimpin Change explains.

At a time when there is a blur between creativity and mediocrity, the southern wordsmith is a breath of fresh air in an oversaturated urban music market. "Only In My Mind" contains soul piercing lyrics and Pimpin Change's words paint precise pictures. It captures the rapper's vivid memories of his past and touches on matters close to his heart. "Only In My Mind" is honest and personal.
